What is my Scaled Score, and Why Do I have a Personal Score Range?

Scores are first calculated by awarding one point for each correct answer and subtracting one-quarter of one point for each incorrect answer. These scores are called raw scores. Raw scores can vary from one edition of the test to another due to differences in difficulty among different editions. A statistical procedure called "equating" is used to adjust for these differences. Even after these adjustments, no single test score provides a perfectly accurate estimate of your proficiency. Therefore, we provide a score range on the SSAT score scale to emphasize the possibility of score differences if you had taken a different edition of the test instead of the one you took. Your scores on these different versions would likely fall within the scaled score ranges indicated above.

What Do My SSAT Percentiles Mean?

Your SSAT percentiles have a range of 1 to 99, indicating the percentage of other test takers who scored at or below your scaled score. The first SSAT percentile compares your performance to the performances of all other students in the same grade level who have taken the test in the last three years. The second SSAT percentile compares your performance to the performance of other students of the same grade and gender who have taken the SSAT within the past three years. If you are concerned that your percentiles are lower than you have earned on other tests, please remember that SSAT test takers are members of a small and highly competitive group of students who plan to attend some of the world's best independent schools. You should not be discouraged by what seems to be a lower percentile than you usually attain on standardized tests.

	Algebra, Geometry & Other Math	16	15	1

	Higher Order	14	7	0

Questions not answered include both omitted questions and questions not reached. The number of Right, Wrong, and Not Answered questions should NOT be compared across different forms, for the same test taker or between different test takers. The number of Right, Wrong, and Not Answered questions not only depends on a test taker's ability, but also depends on the difficulty of the questions. Hence, score equating is used to adjust the form difficulty differences, and the resulting scaled scores can be compared across forms.
